Wednesday 14 March 2018

Wednesday will be a day for discussion in group sessions from 9.00 – 17.15 each discussing five themes as set out in the timetable below. The proposed purpose of the discussion day is to exchange views and foster an inclusive dialogue among all SAICM stakeholders.

Time
7.30 – 18.00	Registration
7.30 – 8.00	Bureau meeting
8.00 – 9.00	Regional / Sectoral NGO and IOMC meetings
9.00 – 13.15	Discussion Groups
13.15 – 14.30	Lunch
14.30 – 17.15	Discussion Groups
17.30 – 18.30	Plenary

Five discussion groups will be formed, comprised of approximately 40-60 participants each. The composition of the discussion groups will be provided on the evening of 13 March 2018. In composing the groups, efforts will be made to ensure stakeholder, geographical, gender and sector distribution.

Each discussion group will cover the same 5 topics: (i) vision, (ii) policy principles, (iii) objectives and milestones, (iv) implementation, including finance, and (v) governance. Each topic will have two pre-assigned co-hosts. The co-hosts will circulate to each of the discussion groups in their respective timeslot to facilitate the dialogue and build on the discussions of each of the groups.

The co-hosts will represent the five United Nations regions as well as the five sectors represented in the Bureau (public interest organizations, health sector NGOs, labour sector NGOs, industry and IOMC). One government representative will be in each of the groups. The co-hosts will be identified in advance.

Following the conclusion of all the discussion groups, the co-hosts will be invited to share the findings from the groups in plenary and to present those findings in writing.

The findings as presented by the co-hosts will be consolidated into one paper also by the co-hosts. This paper will be presented to and shared with all the meeting participants on 15 March. Based on possible further input and comments in plenary, including inclusion of the plenary discussions on high-level political commitment and visibility under agenda item 5(f), this paper, may constitute the outcome of the second intersessional meeting and will be annexed to the report of the meeting, serving as input to the third meeting of the Open-ended Working Group.

The detailed schedule for the discussions groups is set out as follows:
