

Integrated approach to financing

1. ALT 1 [The implementation of the integrated approach to financing for the sound management of chemicals and waste is important for the implementation of the instrument, which was designed and agreed as a long-term contribution beyond 2020, in particular in developing countries and countries with economies in transition. It [continues to be essential] (Del) [contributes] (Add) to the achievement to the 2030 agenda and contribute to reducing the widening gap in national capacities in addressing the sound management of chemicals and waste through financial and technical support. Multi sectoral support for and participation in all three components of this integrated approach should be promoted and encouraged in national, regional and at international levels]

2. A clearinghouse mechanism [should] [could] be established [under the Secretariat of (the agreement)] [by stakeholders] to provide information on resource mobilization and possible sources of financing for the sound management of chemicals and waste [for other stakeholders.]

3. [All stakeholders agree to establish an arrangement, process or subsidiary structure comprising of finance and other relevant experts to keep sound management of chemicals and waste, capacity building, technology, finance and other resource mobilization sources and initiatives under review.] (del) (keep)

4. All three components of the integrated approach to financing, i.e. mainstreaming, private sector involvement and dedicated external finance, are equally important and mutually reinforcing.

5. Stakeholders should take steps to implement the integrated approach to financing the sound management of chemicals and waste, including, in particular, making tangible progress with respect to the following three components:

A. Mainstreaming

6. Governments should implement actions [in accordance with their national laws, regulations and/or] (add) policy priorities] (keep) (del) to promote further mainstreaming of the sound management of chemicals and waste in national development plans, domestic budgets and relevant sector policies [including] (add) (del) [to facilitate access to funding for national priorities in relation to chemicals and waste] (add) (del) [in particular for developing countries] (add) (del) [and countries with economies in transition.] (add) (del)

[For [countries in need] (del) [developing countries and countries with economies in transition] (keep), the mainstreaming of [their national] [sound management of] chemicals and waste [management] [priorities] into [the] [their] development planning processes [and in national development or sustainable development plans] for funding [as part of official development assistance] [should become a priority that][may] [will] [should] increase their access to funding for national priorities in relation to chemicals and waste.] (del) (keep)

ALT 6 [For developing countries and countries with economies in transition, the mainstreaming of their national chemicals and wastes priorities into the development planning processes for official development assistance funding will increase their access to significant funding for national chemicals and wastes priorities.] (keep) (del)

7. Developed (del) [[Countries] (keep) [Governments] (keep) [Governments of developed countries] (add) (del) should strive to mainstream the sound management of chemicals and waste into their development [aid] [assistance programmes and] priorities.] [They should also promote the mainstreaming in activities and programmes of international organisations they are members of, including the provision of appropriate budget and human resources needed for strengthening cooperation and coordination amongst stakeholders.]

7 Bis [International, regional and national financial institutions and their governing bodies, as well as private sector and investors are [encouraged] [requested] to also expressly integrate sound management of chemicals and waste activities in the scope of activities they fund.]